

Character Map

The diagram is a character map with a central box labeled "Character's Name". Four lines radiate from this central box to four surrounding rectangular boxes, each with a black header. The top-left box is titled "How the character looks and feels". The top-right box is titled "What others think about the character". The bottom-left box is titled "What the character says and does". The bottom-right box is titled "How I feel about the character".

How the character looks and feels

What others think about the character

Character's Name

What the character says and does

How I feel about the character